Color: Solid Beige Breed: Huacaya

Micron: 23.7, Standard Deviation: 4.8, Comfort Factor: 91.4

Wow! This guy has placed in the top 3 in Halter / Fleece shows across the nation. This stud has it all, and he is proving it in competition and offspring. Need to improve the fiber in your herd? His fiber has structure, conformation, matchstick bundling, merino-like crimp, density and uniformity! His sister (from Vesuvius) sold for $56K at the 2005 Futurity show. Val's offspring carries his excellent fiber characteristics and conformation all the way through. Every cria shown in the ring has placed high in their class.

Sire: Bolivian Vesuvius (Black) Dam: HRAZ Christy – Peruvian ORO daughter (Brown)

FRA Peruvian Esteban

Born: 4/22/2003

Stud Fee: $2,000

For Sale: $20,000

Will Consider Part Ownership

Color: Dark Brown Breed: Huacaya

Micron: 21.5, Standard Deviation 4.0, Comfort Factor 95.4

You will fall in love this guy. His fiber has excellent crimp, and a handle that is hard to find on a dark animal. His fiber has so much luster it is amazing. Conformationally this alpaca is near perfect. This is a stud that will add so much to your herd. If his fiber isn't enough, look at his bloodline! Black Mesquite's awards are too numerous to mention but his offspring says it all. Look at this bloodline in Magical Farm's 2006 Herdsire Catalog, you will be amazed. Esteban's first baby was born in June 06, carries excellent fiber and great conformation and was black out of a brown dam. All his offspring are spectacular animals.

Sire: MFI Peruvian Black Mesquite (Black) Dam: MY Peruvian Estacia (Med. Brown)

AHA Mercury

Stud Fee: $1,500

For Sale: $5,000

Color: Medium Fawn

Breed: Huacaya

Micron: 19.5, Standard Deviation: 4, Comfort Factor: 98.8

Boreas is one of the cutest crias we have ever seen. He is the son of the Goddess Aurora, named after the Greek God of the North Wind. His bone structure and fiber characteristics match his Sire's perfectly... great crimp from head to toe, shine, dense with great handle. This guy is Valentino all over again with more color in his fleece. Fall Festival 2006, he placed 2nd in a class of 8, (the judge raved about his conformation and fiber), Great Western Alpaca Show 2007, he placed 5th in a class of 8, 2007 Elbert County Fair placed 1st in Fleece Show.

Sire: HRAZ Valentino (Beige) Dam: Aurora (Medium Beige)
